

CALL FOR EXPRESSIONS OF INTEREST • ADVISORY BOARD

Lend your expertise to protect children from online harm

Custorian is a Danish non-profit building the Child Digital Safety and Wellbeing (CDSW) Standard, certified only by independent, accredited third parties. Our Advisory Board is a roster of ten to twelve experts who guide our research and development work, shape the Standard and its child-facing content, open doors, and lend their expertise where it magnifies our impact in protecting children from online harm. Members are drawn on per task, not convened as a standing committee.

OPEN DOMAINS 6 of 8 on the roster	COMMITMENT Task-based no fixed meetings	TURNAROUND ~15 days working days per review	TERM 2 years renewable once	SERVICE Unpaid non-voting

WHAT YOU WOULD DO

- Guide our research and development work with your domain expertise.
- Review and comment on drafts of the Standard and on child-facing content.
- Open doors: make introductions and lend your expertise where it magnifies our impact for children.
- Serve on a sub-committee where assigned: Standards & Technical, Certification & Impartiality, or Policy & Rights.
- Flag regulatory, clinical, technical or rights developments that matter to our work.
- Decline any individual request without prejudice to your seat.

GOOD TO KNOW

- Serve in a personal capacity or as a representative of the organisation you are affiliated with. We agree which applies with you up front.
- Advisory members hold no vote, no operational role and no access to sensitive material.
- Declare conflicts of interest on appointment and on any change.
- Geographic diversity is a selection consideration: applicants from every region are welcome.
- Youth and survivor-voice members may receive an honorarium.

How to apply

Send a short expression of interest naming your domain, with a CV or LinkedIn profile, at custorian.org/#advisory-interest. Applications are reviewed on a rolling basis. Next steps: a conflict-of-interest declaration, screening against domain needs, then an individual MOU and appointment by the Board.
